Dear ##[Name | First]## ##[Name | Last]##,

As we move further into the semester, this issue shares updates on the conclusion of award nominations, upcoming conference milestones, and new opportunities across the PMRA community.

Don't forget to renew your PMRA membership for 2026 and we thank you for your continued engagement in advancing research and supporting colleagues across the field.

Together in research,
PMRA | Public Management Research Association

PMRA Announcements

PMRA memberships operate on a calendar-year cycle beginning January 1. Members have a two-month grace period to renew, which concludes at the end of February.

There are just a few weeks remaining to renew your membership and continue receiving full member benefits, including journal access, conference discounts, and eligibility for awards and service opportunities. To maintain access and secure the appropriate membership rate, please renew before your grace period ends.

If your membership status has changed, for example from student to full membership or from full to retiree, contact the PMRA Office for assistance at contact@gopmra.org.

Also, if you notice an issue with your invoice, please reach out so it can be resolved promptly.

Renewals Due:
February 28, 2026

Awards Update | Review Process Underway

** UPDATED ** PMRA  Posted on 02/13/2026

The 2026 PMRA awards nomination and application period has closed.

Thank you to everyone who submitted nominations for the Frederickson and Best Dissertation Awards and to the doctoral students who applied for Meier PMRC travel support. With more than 65 submissions, this is one of the most competitive cycles in recent years.

Committees are now reviewing materials, along with journal-based honors including the Beryl Radin, Camilla Stivers, Riccucci-O'Leary, and the newly endowed Claudia N. Avellaneda Award. Recipients will be notified directly and announced in the Spring issue of Management Matters, with formal recognition at PMRC in June in Washington, DC.

The School of Public Affairs at American University is excited to share the latest updates for the Public Management Research Conference (PMRC 2026)! We can't wait to welcome the global public management community to this premier event.

- Conference Dates: June 4–6, 2026
- Pre-Conference Workshops: June 3, 2026

PRESENTERS: Deadline to confirm participation TODAY (February 13)!

Please locate your original decision email and click the confirmation link to formally indicate your attendance. Please be advised that if confirmation is not received by the deadline, we may be unable to include your paper in the final conference agenda.

Registration for PMRC 2026 is officially OPEN!

We have opened registration earlier than usual to provide better support to our international community, ensuring all global participants have ample time to finalize travel arrangements, secure funding, and complete essential steps, such as applying for a visa, well in advance of the conference. All prospective attendees are strongly encouraged to register as soon as possible.

Sponsorship Opportunities Available!

We invite your institutions to explore exciting sponsorship and advertisement opportunities with us! Becoming a sponsor is the perfect way for your institution to contribute to, gain visibility in, and engage directly with our dedicated community of public management scholars.

Thank you for being part of #PMRC2026! We look forward to seeing you in Washington DC!

Call for Participation | University Budget Simulation Study

Participate in Study  Posted on 01/9/2026

Fiscal stress and uncertainty is causing Universities to have to make hard decisions about how to raise revenue and make cuts to expenditures. As a faculty member, your perspective about how to make cuts and tradeoffs is especially valuable.

This simulation experiment study uses a hypothetical University based on a University that you might recognize. Please balance the budget for us to gain valuable information on how faculty members would like the University to balance the budget.

Call for Papers | Special Issue on Accounting for What Matters

Call for Papers  Posted on 10/3/2025

Public sector organizations are navigating economic instability, climate crises, inequities, and political pressures—often forced to balance financial sustainability with the equally vital goals of social sustainability and equity. This special issue invites research that rethinks public sector accounting and accountability not only as tools for fiscal management but also as frameworks that foster inclusion, fairness, resilience, and long-term public value.

We welcome conceptual, empirical, and comparative studies addressing how accounting can better embed social sustainability, manage value trade-offs, strengthen organizational resilience, and challenge existing power dynamics. Case studies, longitudinal analyses, and critical perspectives across diverse contexts (healthcare, education, social services, etc.) are encouraged.

Call for Papers | JBPA on Null Results

Call for Papers  Posted on 9/12/2025

The Journal of Behavioral Public Administration (JBPA) seeks papers for a special issue on null results. Null results are important for scientific progress and for policy making. But null results require nuanced consideration to be informative—null results caused by a small sample size or measurement error may hide true (non-zero and substantively meaningful) effects. JBPA welcomes null results Public Administration papers, especially those utilizing pre-hoc power analysis, pre-registration, experimental manipulation checks, Bayesian t-tests/Bayes factors, TOST procedures or simulated confidence intervals to rule out large effect, and other nuanced and convincing methods. Full research papers will be evaluated on an ongoing basis.
